

For more than 90 years, United Way has worked as a connector by bringing together people and resources to tackle complex issues and create positive change to help our community thrive.

We carefully identify our community's most crucial needs and invest in programs and initiatives that impact our county in the following focus areas:

HELPING YOUTH SUCCEED

Helping children and youth achieve their potential through educational assistance and mentors.

STABILIZING FAMILIES

Promoting financial stability and independence with a variety of services.

EMPOWERING HEALTHY LIVES

Improving access to health care and promoting healthy behaviors.
