JEREMY’S story...

As a young adult, Jeremy experienced symptoms of mental illness. Working odd jobs in construction to support himself, he struggled to meet his basic needs. Alone and unstable, Jeremy began abusing drugs. As his mental and financial health declined, he became homeless.

After years of homelessness, Jeremy met with The Lord’s Place’s Street Engagement program, which gave him meals and hygiene products. He was referred to Operation Home Ready (OHR), a permanent supportive housing program for chronically homeless adults. Jeremy improved his life skills, social inclusion, health and well-being. Today, he lives in one of the program’s one-bedroom apartments. The program has given him a home and the ability to care for himself.
