DARREL'S story...

Darrel joined Bound for College (BFC) when he was a high school sophomore living with his mother and disabled younger brother. Darrel's mom always knew her son would do great things, but she could not afford to get him on that path to success - until he found Bound for College.

Darrel diligently attended BFC programming throughout high school. Because of his hard work, Darrel was one of 10 students in Florida to receive a Cooke College Scholarship, providing up to $40,000 per year to help with undergraduate education, and is attending the University of Miami to study Broadcast Journalism.
